ASPIRATIONS A HOPE FOR MANKIND

Learning facilitated through exhilarating School Assemblies

School Assemblies are an integral part of the school curriculum. The topics given this year were based on Franklin Covey's "The Leader in Me". These topics essentially talk about all the important aspects such as Determining Goals, Perseverance, and Confidence, Sticking to One's Deadlines, Manners, Productivity, Planning, Being Proactive, and Prioritizing. There was an excellent oratory round by the students during the Declamation that followed, the speeches were based on the profound thoughts and values expressed over time by famous leaders like Mahatma Gandhi, Subhash Chandra Bose, Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King and many others to contribute as value learning for our students.

These assemblies play a vital role in contributing to the growth and development of students. Value based assemblies are conducted section wise for each class, to imbibe and develop confidence in every JHPian. Each and every student is given an opportunity to participate and showcase their talents and in turn develop to be a leader of tomorrow.

"Aspiration does not need any Inspiration"

Every one of us has multiple dreams, desires and aspirations. Dreams come to us randomly, desires arise within us impulsively but it is the aspirations alone that can be streamlined and sequenced to achieve something in our life.

The first thing one should do is to write down your list of aspirations. It may vary from person to person but the most common aspirations can be classified into – a thing to do, a place to go, a skill to learn, an objective to achieve, a possession to obtain – the choices of a person may differ in these aspirations, the sequence may differ and the objective may differ. However, mankind continues to aspire for something or the other as long as they live – Some for selfish reasons, some for social reasons and some for country, world, universe and so on.

So, Jhpians should get inspired and aspire better things for themselves and the world.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

A Shared Aspiration for All Students

All schools share a common aspiration: that students' educational experience is holistic for success in profession and life. In the current state of affairs, besides the students' acquisition of rigorous academic content, to thrive in this dynamic economy and globally connected world, students must cultivate the ability to be:

- the Creative Collaborator
- the Effective Communicator
- the Critical Thinker
- Goal-Oriented

Ethical and Global Citizen

The call of the hour is a transformation of educational systems across India, with a compelling intersection around the vision and aspirations in all walks of life.

Students' unique interests maximize learning in meaningful, authentic work dealing with the real world. Teachers too, seek access to focus on the design of learning that inspires students to optimize learning. The business community demand is for employees with creative, analytical, critical, collaborate, innovate, and communicative skills. Parents aspire and support the best for their wards.

We all share a goal in this work that ALL students have access to an educational experience that fosters hope, engagement, knowledge and skills as fundamentals for future success.

ACADEMIC DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

A dream doesn't become reality through magic; it takes sweat, determination and hard work.

- Colin Powell

This edition of Hillside aptly themed 'Aspirations- A Hope for Mankind' showcases how people have left their footprints on the sands of time with their aspirations which have benefitted mankind and changed lives. Be it Edison, Einstein, Newton, Sir C V Raman, Ramanujan, Flemming, Pasteur or any others, they did not become famous overnight. They had to Aspire and perspire to finally inspire and help generations. They were men and women who strived to fulfill their destiny. This edition I know will inspire and motivate students and all readers alike to aspire and fulfill their life's purpose.

All of us aspire to be great men and women but only a few of us fulfill this aspiration- not because we are less intelligent, not because we are less talented but only because we do not take our aspirations seriously neither do we put in the hard work and effort necessary to make these dreams a reality. As Late Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, the former President of India has said, "Dream is not that you see in sleep, dream is something that does not let you sleep."

My advice to you is, as students if you inculcate the habit of keeping a goal, laying out the requirements and working hard in a planned manner to achieve the goal, success will definitely be yours.

May we all aspire and become successful.

ASPIRATIONS

A HOPE FOR MANKIND

“ Dreams and aspirations are driven by passion, inspiration and ambition..... fuelled by dedication, motivation and perseverance ,”

- Melanie Moushigian Koulouris

Our deepest aspirations and what they mean to us

Aspiration is the driving force that pushes one forward. It is the thought that inspires people to bring out the best within them; it is the feeling that one gets when they close their eyes and visualize the future, ready to face the world.

In this world there are billions of people, each with their own thoughts and ideas. Imagination fuels the hunger to grow and aspirations shape the mind of a person. Every single person has goals that he/she wants to achieve, the desire is within everybody.

Every individual is unique and their thoughts are governed by various circumstances around them. What one aspires to achieve determines the character. When one believes in oneself and is ready to accept the challenge, it brings out the strongest traits. Success has a different meaning for everybody. Self-satisfaction is the key; if you are not satisfied no one else can push you to go forward except yourself.

How goals and aspirations shape us

“Stay Focussed Go After Dreams and Keep Moving Towards Goals ”

- LL Cool J

Goals and aspirations are the reasons for which one strives to achieve one's goals. It is our goal that pushes us to get what we want and in the process, makes us a better person. Most successful people are the ones who have chased their goals with utmost determination. Our goals and aspirations shape us for the better or the worse. The outcome is determined by our path to achieve that goal.

Our long-term as well as short-term goals make our life meaningful. They give us something to think about and work towards achieving; they shape our past, present and future. We need to set goals that benefit others too; and we become recognised as good people in our lifetime.

Turning our aspirations into reality

“Set your Goals High and Don't Stop Till You Get There”

- BO Jackson

The path to turning our aspirations into reality involves few steps:

- Visualization-A dream is a technique in creating what you want from life using the power of imagination. Using some common visualization techniques can help people convert their dreams into future possibilities.
- Having a clear idea of what we want to achieve and being able to prioritize aspirations into a single goal is a way of beginning to work strategically with our goals.

WE MUST HAVE A GOAL SET IN OUR

- When one begins with the end in mind and sets an action plan, one can set interim goals which advance towards vision. Achieving things in small incremental steps has great power.
- We must know our strengths and limitations and work towards making them beneficial to us.

Set goals and work hard towards them. Recognize that we all face disappointments during our lives. Even if we do not end up reaching whatever our end goal might be, know that the hard work will have changed the world around us .

How school life helps students to work towards achieving their aspirations

School is the place where a student flourishes. We learn, grow and bring out the best within ourselves in this place. The atmosphere of a school challenges the students to compete first with themselves and then with the rest of the world.

Student life is extremely crucial in a person's development. Student years are the time to have fun, experiment and reach new boundaries. Family, teachers and parents are always there to help reach one's dream and support during times of difficulty. Support and belief is all one needs to define one's undefined dreams. When so many minds come together, there is bound to be a healthy competition within them. Look around, there are people who inspire us to go forward.

JHPS organizes regular sessions for students to motivate and help them to dream and act upon their dream to reach their goal. Students are like wet clay and can be moulded in any shape. They are quick learners and absorb everything around them.

The School strives to educate the students by having everyday assemblies that imbibe the values of discipline, punctuality, team work, honesty etc to achieve their goals. These traits play a pivotal role in a student's life making them responsible citizens.

"Raise Aspirations, Set Higher Goals And Make Detailed Plans To Achieve Them."

Interview with Alumni

SUCCESS FOLLOWS HARD WORK

- Dr. Siddharth Nagarajan

Success at a tender age

It is indeed very prestigious for JHPS to have Siddharth Nagarajan of 2012 batch; the world's fastest and youngest drummer, from amongst the alumni. He earned a place in the Limca Book of Records as the youngest drummer of India at the age of 3 to 5 years from 2001-2003. He was awarded with an Honorary Doctorate from University of UK. He is also considered as one of seven geniuses in the world by National Geographic Channel. The students of the Hillside News had the opportunity to share a few minutes with him to gain inspiration from his life.

What are the values that you have learnt from school and did they have any impact on your life?

➤ JHPS is a huge milestone in my life and every person I have met or have interacted with from JHPS has created a great impact on me. JHPS taught me to grow as an individual and in believing myself. School gave me a lot of friends and the support from the school to my music and career is unimaginable which I am forever grateful for.

What inspired you to choose this profession?

➤ I hail from a family of musicians. My Grandfather being a Tablist for K.V Mahadevan, a legendary Music Director for more than 45 years and my Father Nagiis also a Drummer/ Percussionist who has been recording and performing with legendary artists including the maestro Ilayaraja and many others like DSP, Mani Sharma, Koti etc. My Mother Vidya is a full fledged Indian classical singer and my sister is also an incredible singer and an Ex Student of JHPS. So, I think it was naturally an instinct for me to lean towards music. I am the

5th generation of musicians from my family and the 3rd generation for Rhythms.

How do you think the school and its values have helped you face challenges in life?

➤ I was an average student in school and could not even keep up the attendance level but the support and encouragement that I got from the Principal Ms. M. Varalakshmi, and the Chairman, Sri. A. Murali Mukund was incredible, not once did they put me down or taunt me for it. On the other hand, Mr. Murthy, Chemistry Sir and the other teachers helped me by taking extra classes and my classmates were asked to share notes. This gave me the confidence to pursue my interest and I understood the value of friendship and compassion.

One piece of advice to the students that you would like to give?

➤ Focus and believe in what you aim, and the rest will automatically be in your favour. If you think you are good at something, don't give up, make an extra effort to work on it.
